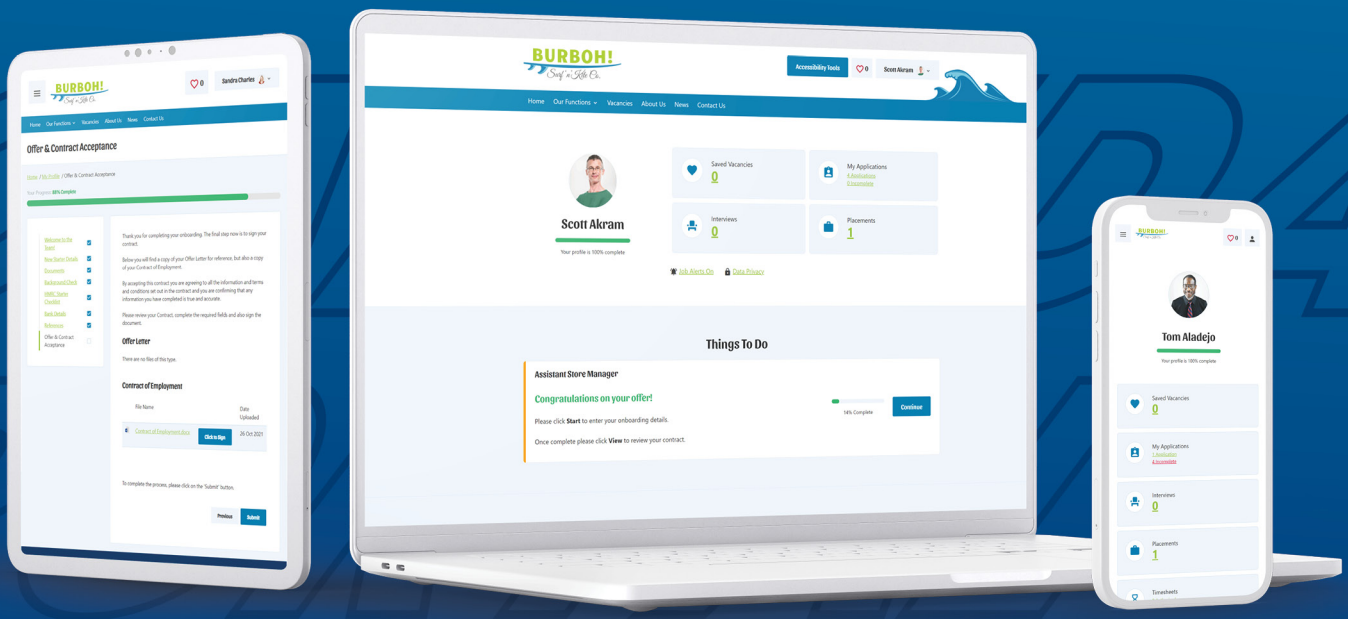
CANDIDATE PORTAL

EVERYTHING YOUR CANDIDATES NEED

TO FIND, APPLY AND START THEIR IDEAL CAREER... WITH YOU



Eploy Candidate Portals help convert your prospects to candidates. A smooth and straightforward online application journey is seamlessly integrated into your careers site.

Effortless registration & applications

With just a few clicks, candidates can register securely (even using their social network profiles like LinkedIn, Google and Facebook) and upload their CV. Eploy automatically extracts all key information into the candidate's profile, no re-keying required. Eploy even suggests the best positions for each candidate and alerts them by email. Instantly connecting candidates with your career opportunities.

Flexible search to find ideal roles

No matter how many open positions you have available, candidates can quickly search and apply for their ideal role. Search options include role types, departments, by salary band, location or any other criteria.

Mobile recruiting - socially connected

Eploy Candidate Portals are mobile responsive as standard - meaning a consistent journey and brand on all devices. Plus, candidates can use their social network profiles to register & apply and even upload their CV from cloud storage like Dropbox, OneDrive & Google Drive.
